(a) the number of Professors and Tutors at present (2-1-1930) in the Mathematics Department of the Science College;

(b) whether during the regimes of Dewan Mr. Raghaviah and Dewan Mr. M. E. Watts any special provision was made to the effect that non-Brahmins belonging to communities that suffer inequality of treatment should be given preference in this department;

(c) whether it is a fact that it was a Brahmin that was selected for a fresh appointment in the same department this year (1105);

(d) whether there was for that appointment any applicant belonging to any of the communities that suffer inequality of treatment; and

(e) if so, the reason for not appointing him?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government):

(a)	Professors	...	2
	Assistant Professors	...	2
	Tutors	...	3

(b) There is no such order relating to the Mathematics Department, particularly, but Government have issued instructions to the Director of Public Instruction that the policy adopted by them for giving preference to applicants from communities inadequately represented in the service should be strictly adhered to.

(c) There were two vacancies in 1105. For the first vacancy a Brahmin and for the second a Roman Catholic Christian were appointed.

(d) For the first vacancy one Kshatriya, one Roman Catholic Christian and a Jacobite Syrian Christian were also applicants.

(e) The candidate with the best qualification was selected.
